

The Best of Charleston

Getting There

---

Charleston International Airport is served by Delta, United, American, Jet Blue, Alaska and Southwest Airlines. Driving, I-26 takes you right to Downtown Charleston.

Geographical Overview

The “Peninsula” is Old Historic Downtown Charleston. This is where our conference hotel, The Francis Marion Hotel, is located. The Peninsula is bounded by the Cooper River to the East and the Ashley River to the West. Thus, surrounding areas, all part of “The Lowcountry” are referred to as West of the Ashley or East of the Cooper. Charleston Harbor is formed where the Ashley and Cooper Rivers join to form the Atlantic Ocean (at least this is what Charlestonians think). Old Plantations and Barrier Islands can be found in either direction.

Getting Around

The Peninsula itself is totally walkable; you do not need a car. Besides walking, there are cabs, trollys and Pedi cabs that are very reasonable or free. To explore the barrier islands, beaches, golf courses and plantations, you would need a car; or, you could take a tour.

What to See and Do

Focus on your passion: Art, History, Food, Religion, Culture, Recreation ~ Trip Advisors Top Choices

Waterfront Park beautiful, free, has swinging benches and goes out into the Harbor. Take a picnic and stay a while.

Emanuel AME Church this is a very historical and influential church in Charleston’s history – long before the shootings in 2015 will be the site of our Experiential Learning Opportunity. Very close to the Francis Marion hotel.

SC Aquarium great, especially with children.

Gullah Tours this is a downtown tour, though most of the Gullah people lived on barrier islands south of Charleston. There are also African American History Tours and Plantation Tours, the most popular ~ Boone Hall.

Water Taxi you could take an expensive harbor tour or a boat to Ft. Sumter, but a round trip ride on the Water Taxi is a nice, inexpensive way to get out on the harbor. Try it early in the morning with your coffee. It stops at the Waterfront Park, near the Aquarium, and across the Harbor in Mt. Pleasant.

The downtown peninsula has a couple of areas filled with art galleries such as this Jonathan Green, a favorite, and this, Anglin Smith, another favorite. You can easily see these just walking around.

For recreation, there are a ton of golf courses, and lots of Sailing and Fishing Charter options.
